

Small businesses (independent ISPs) need to have fair rules to compete with the larger carriers, and offer consumers choice. Competition also helps to keep costs down and drive innovation. Without competition, prices will rise, choices will be eliminated, and nobody will win. Except the LECs. Please do not side with the special interests of Big Business. Give the "little guys", which employ the bulk of Americans, a fair chance to compete.